RECLUSE'S DISAPPEARANCE IS INVOLVED IN CLOAK OF MYSTERY

MYSTERY DEEPENS IN CASE OF LOCAL MAN

Eugene Lauvaux, 60 Years Old, Living In Crest Avenue, Has Not Been Seen For 14 Days—Foul Play Is Feared

A BACHELOR; LIVED ALONE

Places His Property In Hands of Real Estate Dealer For Sale—Equity Sold, And Only Awaits Signature of Mr. Lauvaux to the Deed to Close Deal

The mystery deepens in the case of Eugene Lauvaux, aged 60 years, who resided in Crest avenue, and who has been missing for a period of 14 days. It is not thought that the unidentified body found in the river near Fayette City, was that of Mr. Lauvaux, and his sister, Mrs. Marie Sconing of Butler, and his brother, John Baptiste Lauvaux of Canonsburg, are of the opinion that he has met with foul play.

Mr. Lauvaux is a Belgian, who speaks English brokenly. He has resided alone in the borough for the past 12 years, and was never married. He owns the home where he lived, and recently placed the property in the hands of E. J. Charles, a local realty dealer, for disposition. Mr. Charles found a buyer, and the deal needs only consummation by the signature of Mr. Lauvaux. But the owner cannot be found, and all efforts to locate him have thus far proved fruitless. His sister and brother are much concerned about the local man, and state that he has not visited either of them. Mr. Lauvaux was last seen in Fallowfield avenue and Fifth street 14 days ago, but he has vanished apparently as completely as though the earth had swallowed him up.

The only time he has been away from Charleroi during the past six years, was one night when he visited his sister in Butler.

What leads to the theory of foul play is that it may have come to the knowledge of some person or persons that he was about to dispose of his property, and that such knowledge prompted him to flee, to waylay him, perhaps with fatal results. It is not thought he had money to any great amount on his person when last seen.

Mr. Lauvaux is five feet, four inches in height, sturdily proportioned, and weighs about 160 or 170 pounds. His hair is streaked with gray, and when last seen he was garbed in the clothes of a working man. Any information concerning him will be thankfully received by Chief of Police James A. Murphy, Bell telephone 122, Charleroi, or wire him collect.

VERONA SCHOOL GIRL FORCIBLY ABDUCTED

Verona, Pa., April 4.—(United Press)—Seized by a woman who leaped from a taxi cab while enroute to school, Jane Humbert, 10 years, was carried away before the four persons who witnessed the alleged kidnapping could aid the child, according to reports to the police.

The girl has been living at the home of John M. Schwartz. Her father, W. S. Humbert, resides in Cincinnati, and the mother lives in Cincinnati.

According to witnesses of the alleged abduction, the taxicab had been waiting near the school house for almost an hour before Jane arrived. When the girl approached a woman leaped from the machine and grabbed the girl and jumped back into the taxi and sped away.

BARBER PRICES TO REMAIN THE SAME

There will be no change in barber prices in Charleroi for a year, at least. You can get your hair cut, "scrapped," massaged, et cetera, for the same price as now existent.

This information will be received with satisfaction on the part of the patrons of the various shops, inasmuch as there was some talk to the effect that the prices were to be raised, some men averring that if an increase was made in the price of shaves, that they would "raise whisks," asserting it would be asier to raise them than the extra fee.

REFUSES TO BE MADE A "GOAT"

Washington, April 4.—(United Press)—Former Attorney General Daugherty will refuse to be "made a goat," he and his friends said emphatically today as Daugherty prepared to issue a statement in reply to Senator George Wharton Pepper's reference to Daugherty in his Portland, Maine, "keynote" speech. Pepper said the appointment of Daugherty was a grave error in judgment. Instantly Daugherty shot out a statement in which he said: "I do not propose to be made an issue in the coming campaign except for the benefit of the Republican party as a beneficiary of my administration."

ART EXHIBIT AT THE SCHOOLS

In the schools of North Charleroi there is being held this afternoon an Art exhibit, a display of 25 reproductions of the world's famous paintings, loaned by the Porter Motor Company of Chicago. The display is being given under the auspices of the Schools' and Community Improvement association. The masterpieces were to be some of the artist life responsible.

The object of the exhibit is to give the people of the community an opportunity of seeing and studying the works of art, and also as a means to raise funds to purchase like pictures for the schools.

The Schools' and Community Improvement association will hold its regular monthly meeting on Thursday, April 10, at the school building, the subject for the occasion to be "Citizenship." Scout Executive Hiram S. Hall will address the assemblage.

FRANCIS HOGAN IS DEAD OF PNEUMONIA

Francis Hogan, aged 49 years, a wellknown Monongahela Valley resident practically all his life, and a highly respected citizen of Charleroi for the past 25 years, died suddenly last night at 10:10 o'clock at his late home in 788 Fallowfield avenue.

His death, due to pneumonia, which developed yesterday morning after a few days illness, comes as a shock to the community. Mr. Hogan was out on the streets Wednesday and went to bed feeling ill at 4 o'clock that afternoon. His condition grew rapidly critical until his passing last night.

The son of Mrs. Ellen Hogan and the late Thomas Hogan, the deceased was born in Ireland, coming to this locality when but a small boy. He was employed at the American Sheet and Tin Plate company of Monessen, and was a member of St. Jerome's Catholic church.

Besides his mother the deceased leaves three sisters, Mrs. John Maines of Overbrook, Mrs. P. C. Mayfield of Overbrook, and Mrs. John Nebelacker at home, and one brother, Thomas Hogan at home.

Funeral services will take place Monday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Jerome's Catholic church with Rev. William D. Fries, officiating. Interment will follow in the Monongahela cemetery.

A LOCAL CLUB STAGES 8 BOUTS

The Hilltop Athletic club held another of their enjoyable smokers last night, when eight bouts were staged. Desire Williams was referee, and Tony DeMarco announced.

The boxers were beginners or novices at the game, but they all gave promise of development, and the big crowd enjoyed the bouts. The towns represented aside from Charleroi, were Fayette City, Elizabeth, and California.

McFeeley and "Cutsey" went through their accustomed stunts, better than ever was the verdict.

The members of the club are grateful for the public patronage which was accorded them last night, and which has been proverbial at all of their smokers.

Bottle Necks And Corks Are Not Sure Sign Of Hootch

Bottle necks and corks are not always sure indications of moonshine whisky, even in these Volsteadian days, Justice of the Peace Ross Watson, of South Strabane township, discovered to his chagrin yesterday.

Employed as a motorman by the Pittsburgh Railways company, Watson yesterday observed a cork and the neck of a bottle protruding from a pocket in the overcoat of James Brown, of Bulger, who was a passenger on the car being operated by him.

Feeling it his duty as justice of the peace of South Strabane township to report the fact that Brown was carrying a bottle and that he believed it contained whisky, although not sure of the fact, Watson asked a policeman to search Brown upon his arrival in Washington.

Though surprised and humiliated by the experience, Brown quietly submitted when the officer approached him and requested that he show the bottle. Reluctantly he pulled it from his pocket.

It proved to be a popular brand of pine tar cough syrup, which Brown was carrying with him because of the fact that he had been suffering from a severe cold for several days.

POLICE CHIEF ARRESTS A RECKLESS DRIVER

Chief of Police James A. Murphy at 10:50 o'clock this forenoon placed under arrest one Charles Gosney, who was driving a Ford automobile recklessly, minus a driver's license. The machine is owned by Oscar Richardson.

Gosney was transporting gasoline to one of Armour's meat trucks, and when nearing the Pennsylvania Railroad station, he lost control of the car. He barely missed Chief Murphy, Burgess Duvall and J. Bryant Tunney, besides cramming two West Penn employees against a car badly bruising, but not seriously injuring them.

Gosney will be given a hearing on a charge of recklessness in driving an automobile and operating the same without a license, before Burgess Duvall, probably this evening.

At many points along the river the channel will be widened and deepened. Dangerous reefs, sandbars, and sunken barges will be removed during the progress of the work. One of the most important steps in the reconstruction of the Monongahela river as a commercial channel.

DRY LAW VIOLATORS REACH OVER A THIRD

Harrisburg, April 4.—(United Press)—More than one-third of all arrests made by the Pennsylvania State Police in 1923 were for violations of the prohibition laws, figures made public at headquarters here today showed.

The 2,873 booze arrests were the largest number under any single classification of state laws. There were 316 arrests by the troopers which were classified under federal prohibition acts.

Only 1,791 of those prosecuted for breaking state liquor laws were convicted, and 130 under federal law. Almost every criminal law was included in the 106 classifications of violations. One person was arrested for being a "common scold" and three for horse stealing.

Violations of automobile laws made up 476 of the 12,990 arrests for the year. Of that number 2,225 were convicted. There were 1,177 persons taken for gambling and 1,386 for disorderly conduct. Next in point of numbers were 392 for cruelty to animals and 237 for assault and battery.

Arrests for more serious offenses were in the minority. There were 45 for murder, 28 for manslaughter, 38 for arson, nine for burglary and five for counterfeiting.

Hundreds of Men Likely to Be Given Employment In the Program of Reconstruction And Improvement Along the River

A MILLION APPROPRIATED

Major Daly and His Assistant, Captain Larkin, River Engineers, Spent Three Months Last Fall And During Winter Inspecting the Stream

Business and working conditions in the Monongahela valley are fairly passable, with prospects brighter as the year advances. It is probable that the gigantic program of reconstruction and improvement, which will be carried out along the Monongahela river this summer, will be started this month, giving employment at the government wage scale to hundreds of men.

Carpenters, rivermen, and laborers will be the chief needs at the locks and dams. The appropriation of $1,500,000 by the United States Congress last fall for improvement of the river along its entire navigable course, is one of the most important steps ever taken by that august body for adding to the importance of the Monongahela river as a commercial channel.

Major Daly and his assistant, Captain Larkin, river engineers, spent three months last fall and during the winter inspecting the river before preparing a tentative schedule for the improvement of the channel and locks and dams. Thousands of dollars will be expended from the congressional appropriation on Lock No. 3, below Monongahela, where the lock will be enlarged and dams reinforced with concrete.

A contract was recently let to a Pittsburgh firm for supplying 68 carloads of bag cement, which will be distributed to the several government stations and locks along the Monongahela river this year.

SAFETY EXPERTS SAY COAL MINE DEATHS CAN BE PREVENTED

New York, April 4.—While fatalities and injuries due to coal mine accidents are increasing, particularly those resulting from dust explosions, yet safety laws lag far behind engineering knowledge of what can and ought to be done to prevent needless loss of life, according to articles by leading authorities in a special Coal Mine Safety number of the American Labor Legislation Review which will be issued this week.

"Certainly from the standpoint of modern safety knowledge, drastic revision of the mining laws and regulations of most of our coal mining states is needed," writes Dean E. A. Holbrook of the Pennsylvania State College School of Mines.

Dean Holbrook, who urges uniformity of mine safety laws, declares that "the two great direct positive factors for coal mine safety" are the state mining laws and codes and the workmen's compensation laws.

Disasters due to coal dust explosions, like those in Yukon, West Virginia, Castle Gate, Utah, Johnston, Pennsylvania, in which 266 lives were lost, it is stated in the Review, can be wholly eliminated by the use of powdered shale to sprinkle the underground passages and working faces of coal mines.

Other writers who discuss various aspects of a program for the prevention of needless coal mine accidents in the Review, include Royal Meeker, secretary of the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry; J. E. Jones, safety engineer of the Old Ben Coal Corporation; Van A. Bitter and Thomas Kennedy of the United Mine Workers of America; H. Foster Bain, director of the U. S. Bureau of Mines; John B. Andrews, secretary of the American Association for Labor Legislation, and Frederick P. Lee, legislative draftsman of the United States Senate.

A plan for guaranteeing steady employment in bituminous mines is put forward in an article by Horace E. Drury of Institute of Economics Washington, D. C., who declares that the soft coal mines work on an average of only 70 percent of a full time year.

"Earnings of the whole body of bituminous miners," says Dr. Drury, "could be increased 20 percent, the cost of coal to the consumer could be reduced by 10 percent, and the operators could make profits of 40 percent longer operating time—all through no other reform than the regularization of mine operation."

The tippie will be one of the largest coal mines in the world, and will be constructed in 1924 and 1925. It will cross Quinn Park, New Eagle, and the dredging will be started this summer by the United States Government dredgers. This labor was put under way last fall, but due to the cold weather, was discontinued until spring.

WHEN AND HOW TO SOW.

Grass may be sown as soon as the snow is gone and the ground warmed slightly. It is an advantage to get it well started before the trees begin to shade the soil, perhaps as early as April. If sown later, especially in mid-summer, the hot sun will make it difficult for the grass to start. The soil will need careful and thorough watering. Grass seed may also be sown in the autumn, from mid-August to October, with good results. If a day just before a rain can be chosen it will be found that the grass will be up in a few days. If no rain is in sight, give a thorough sprinkling of water, but not with force. Else the seed will be washed out. If it is windy the seed will scatter badly, and will not come up evenly. When large areas are to be sown it is best to divide the lawn into approximately ten-foot squares and treat each separately, else it will be difficult to sow uniformly. To cover the seeds, the areas should then be raked in two directions, after which the lawn should be thoroughly rolled. This will compact the soil so that the seeds are in contact with the soil particles.

SLEEPS, FEELS DANDY

"Yes, indeed, that new remedy they are selling down at Green's is the best thing I ever saw," declared Daniel J. Lucy, one of Worcester's best-known Cash Register men. "I'm tickled to death my friends recommended Sulac to me, because my stomach was in terrible condition, causing me great discomfort after a meal. I'd gag, bloated up and sometimes vomit. The gas made me belch and made my mouth taste bad constantly. Food soured and fermented down in my stomach. My nerves were so unstrung I couldn't sleep at night and just didn't enjoy life."

I started taking Sulac, my stomach trouble has all disappeared. My liver is active. I sleep, eat and feel fine, and consider it a wonderful remedy. I recommend Sulac, and the drug stores are surely wise in advertising and recommending a preparation like this," continued Mr. Lucy. Walker Building, Worcester, Mass. Sulac is sold by druggists everywhere.

HEAR THE VOICE OF WOODRUFF

Salt Lake City, April 4—(United Press)—"Echoes of Wilford Woodruff's manifesto of 1906 banning polygamous marriages from Mormonism" were heard here today when the spring conference of the Mormon church convened.

Three times recently, President Heber J. Grant has issued statements denying responsibility for plural marriages in the church and branding those guilty as "defiant violators of church and civil laws."

Some members of the sect, church officials declared, foster polygamy and refuse to acknowledge the church's disavowal of plural marriage laws. Heated discussion was expected to develop.

The conference ends Sunday. Mormons from all parts of the United States and from several foreign countries are here.

PERSHING'S WAR BOOK.

Months ago General Pershing left his address with the American embassy in Paris and disappeared "somewhere in France" to write a book on the part the American army played in the World War, free from interruption and in needed quiet. Now it is announced that his labors are ended, and no doubt the book will soon be in the hands of the reading public. Though it is scarcely to be expected that General Pershing's pen is the pen of a Gibbon, its product will be read with wide interest and doubtless provoke much discussion. For Pershing knows what was one else. After selecting him President Wilson left the direction of the campaign absolutely in his hands. The theatre of war was too far away for interference from Washington, and, in addition to that, civil commanders-in-chief have learned much since the days when Lincoln and the War Secretary undertook to order by telegraph the advance or retreat of Union generals, too often with unfortunate results.

General Pershing may be expected to answer his critics, to discuss his advocacy of unity of command and his insistence upon the employment of the American army on its own front, but his book is doubtless for the most part a story of deeds, and it will be the more interesting for that reason. His account will be instructive, but above all dramatic narration will naturally be looked for. It is a remarkable fact that neither Foch nor Haig has written a book about the war and that Pershing is first of the Allied commanders to undertake the task.

"MAD" McLEAN.

Edward D. McLean moved heaven and earth, as the saying is, to keep from testifying before the Senate investigating committee. He called on his friends at court to help him and they helped, but their help did not suffice, and so McLean, mad as a hornet, proceeded to sting. His Washington Post which has been rated as an Administration organ, intimates that the Republican leaders, if not rascals, are certainly cowards, declaring that they "are not only defied but insulted, and they take their punishment as if they deserved it." That the whole Republican organization is "brought into contempt and worse than contempt," that "it is even charged with protecting criminals and with being itself a participant in crime"—and further:

"What is the matter with the Republican leaders? Can it be true they are trembling with fear that further revelations will confirm the truth of what now seems to be insolent calumnies? Or are they craven weaklings who are afraid to stand up for truth and right because of a selfish desire to keep their own individual names out of the current scandals? A Presidential campaign is approaching. Through lack of stalwart and vigorous leadership the Republican party goes into the campaign as if it were a criminal on the way to execution."

Whatever the answers that may be offered to these questions, it is a remarkable fact that a Senate with a Republican majority, after voting the investigation of the oil leases and of Daugherty, has left the investigation to the Democrats, the Republican members, although with power to dominate, standing mutely in the background.

The action of the House in voting ten millions for German relief calls to mind the appropriation by Congress of a hundred millions for European relief in 1919 and of twenty millions for Russian relief in 1922, apart from the Belgian relief of war times. The Near East Relief has distributed eighty millions and the Jewish Distribution Committee seventy-five millions. In addition there has been enormous outlay abroad by the American Red Cross and by many religious organizations, to say nothing of the great aggregate amount going from individuals in this country to individuals in Europe. No wonder Pope Pius XI describes America's relief of post-war misery as "an epic way of charity."

We read that, though many members of Great Britain's Labor government at first snorted with contempt at the mention of court uniforms and scorned even ordinary evening clothes, one by one they have capitulated and fallen into line after patronizing expensive tailors. Presumably they have been induced to act on the principle expressed in the old French phrase, habillee oblige.

In withdrawing as a candidate for the Democratic Presidential nomination, after being hopelessly defeated in his own State, Senator Reed of Ohio had hoped no considerable antagonism or bitterness would be aroused, these expectations were not realized. Mr. Reed seems not to understand that it was he who roused the "bitterness" among Democrats generally by continually fighting the only Democratic President the country has seen since the far away times of Grover Cleveland and doing this in order to please his Teutonic constituents.

DELEGATES ARE TO GO UNINSTRUCTED

Davenport, Iowa, April 4.—(United Press)—Iowa's thirty delegates to the National Democratic convention at New York will go uninstructed. A majority, however, are known to be friendly to William G. McAdoo, candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The state convention ended late yesterday after a bitter party fight over the selection of a national committeeman to succeed Wilbur W.

Marsh, Conservative leader, of Waterloo, Iowa. An aggressive minority of the delegation chosen favor Governor Al Smith of New York for president or Senator Underwood of Alabama. Convention leaders asserted that should McAdoo's strength wane after the first couple of ballots the minority group would attempt to swing the Iowa votes for either Governor Smith or Underwood.

GIRL BANDIT

SENTENCED TO TRAINING HOME

Pittsburgh April 4.—(United Press)—Bessie Nairan, 19, of Youngstown, Ohio, sentenced to a training home for girls, after being found guilty of robbing a man in the state industrial training home for women by Judge Rowland, in a criminal court.

The girl, who claimed to have traveled throughout Ohio under alias names, was arrested by police officers of Judge Rowland, what she thought should be her end.

"I'll take my medicine," was her reply.

Bessie is alleged to have confessed to several "jobs" since the beginning of her criminal career with a man named Jack Sammers, of Warren, O. When arrested in the Union depot here the girl bandit was garbed in men's clothing and was charged with carrying concealed weapons.

"TEAPOT DOME" IN AN ELECTION

Kansas City April 4.—(U. P.)—Mrs. Marie Harris, a mild mannered little woman who believed her hopes and ambitions for her husband's success were crushed by "machine politics" in a "Teapot Dome" in Kansas City's municipal election campaign today.

Mrs. Harris walked into a political meeting in an outlying section of the city and asked to be heard.

She said her husband had lost his job; she was forced to turn her home into a hotel and she had to support their two children and they had been "hounded" for months because Harris, as engineer for the Kelly-Dennis contracting company, would not approve a $2,000,000 sewer contract containing $200,000 in "kick-backs."

Clinching her statements, she exhibited a check for $5,000 drawn by the Kelly-Dennis company payable to Tom Pendergast, Democratic "boss," and endorsed by him. She said the check had been deposited by the political leader in his personal account.

Pendergast declared the check was "taken out of his pocket."

STONE'S NOMINATION IS REPORTED FAVORABLY

Washington, April 4.—(United Press)—The nomination of Harlan F. Stone of New York to be Attorney General was ordered favorably reported by the Senate Judiciary without a record vote.

In Society's Realm

The sixth and 11th birthday anniversaries of Thelma and Hilda Phillips, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phillips of 600 Eighth street, were befittingly celebrated yesterday afternoon and evening. Miss Thelma and nine of her friends enjoyed a happy afternoon between the hours of 4 to 6 in games, while Miss Hilda with 18 of her friends, spent a delightful evening, from 7 to 11 o'clock. Mrs. Phillips served refreshments at both occasions and the honored guests received many gifts.

The Anna Kugler class of the Christ Lutheran church, with a good attendance, met at the home of Miss Hilda Affeltranger of Shady avenue last night. Business matters pertaining to the activities of the class were discussed and a delightful time was spent in music. Miss Anna Affeltranger entertained with a violin solo, accompanied on the piano by her brother, Emile. The hostess was assisted in serving the luncheon.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Verna Brown, Lincoln avenue, May 1.

Three tables were in play last evening at the regular meeting of the Charleroi Club, at the home of Mrs. Alice Craig of Shady avenue.

A game of 500 was enjoyed and the favor was presented to Miss Edith Woodhall. During a short business meeting two new rules were put in effect. One was that of adding another member to the present membership of 12 and the other, that the light of meeting be changed from Thursday to Monday. After the hostess assisted by her sister, Miss Ella Marie Craig, served a dainty luncheon with appointments carried out in the Easter colors, yellow and white, the members adjourned to meet again at the home of Miss Claire Campbell, Fallowfield avenue, Monday, April 14.

WEEKS TO ANSWER THE CALL MADE

Washington, April 4.—(United Press)—Secretary of War Weeks today will answer the Senate Daugherty committee's call for papers in the "aircraft case" which a witness said were seized from him and turned over to the secretary. It is believed Weeks will produce the papers rather than risk a clash with the probe.

For some time there have been indications that Weeks would be drawn into the inquiry in some way, but the manner in which it finally occurred was not the result of any previous decision of the investigators.

Weeks was served with a note from Senator Brookhart, chairman of the committee, politely requesting him to "have someone bring the papers designated to the committee room."

The papers question were seized from him, Thomas F. Lane, dismissed as a legal advisor in the aircraft section, war department, told the committee yesterday. Lane said he was using the papers in trying to get some action against aircraft builders, who, according to his testimony, have received tremendous over-payments from the government and have never been prosecuted.

FANS WILL HAVE TO PAY FOR PRIVILEGE

Washington, April 4.—(United Press)—Radio fans and Mah Jongg addicts will have to pay something for the privilege.

Senate tax makers have cut tax on automobiles and candy, but put ten percent levies on radio and Mah Jongg sets. All radio sets costing $15 or more—which means most of those that are sold—will bear the ten percent tax under the provision inserted by the Senate finance committee. All Mah Jongg sets worth $5 or more must pay ten percent. It will just be added to the price, because the manufacturer or the importer is to pay it.

By repealing the tax on candy, the committee estimated, it saved candy buyers $13,000,000, but that means that somebody else has to put that $13,000,000 into the treasury.

The tax bill will positively be finished by tomorrow night. Senator Smoot said again today, and will be reported to the Senate early next week.

STRIKE OF CARPENTERS SEEMS INEVITABLE

Pittsburgh, April 4.—(United Press)—Only a last minute truce can prevent Pittsburgh's union carpenters from striking on Monday. Officials of 25 local unions have notified the Master Builders' Association a general strike will become effective on April 7. The carpenters were satisfied with a flat wage agreement of $11 a day but balked at a clause in the contract reading: "There shall be no restriction of the use of any raw material or manufactured material except prison made."

EXAMINATION IN THE MONTH OF JUNE

Competitive examinations will be held in June of this year to determine the award of the scholarship established at the University of Pennsylvania in 1920 by Department No. 3 of the Pennsylvania Railroad War-men's Division for War Relief. This scholarship is a memorial to the men of the Freight Traffic Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad, who gave their lives for their country in the World War and commemorates the relief work done by Department No. 3 among Pennsylvania Railroad soldiers and sailors and members of their families during the war period. Dorothy E. Holloway, daughter of W. H. Holloway, Chief Clerk to Division Freight Agent at Williamsport, Pa., the winner of the first award under this scholarship, will complete her course at the University this year and it is the desire of the donors that the scholarship again be awarded, beginning with the fall term of 1924. The scholarship is open to sons and daughters of present or deceased employees of the Freight Traffic Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and the sons and daughters of members of standing during the years 1918-1919. The persons receiving the highest mark in the competitive examination will be awarded the scholarship thereby securing exemption from the payment of tuition fees in any department of the University. The scholarship is of course open to women only in those departments of the University where women are admitted.

Under terms of the scholarship, candidates must apply to the General Traffic Manager of the Pennsylvania Railroad System expressing their desire to compete in the examinations and furnish full information as to age, previous education and eligibility. To become a competitor a candidate must be approved by the General Traffic Manager of the Pennsylvania Railroad System.

The College Entrance Examination Board of New York City will conduct the competitive examinations, which will include subjects corresponding in general to the entrance requirements of the higher class universities and colleges. The examinations will be given simultaneously at many places throughout the country during the week beginning June 16, 1924. Complete information concerning them will be furnished to candidates upon application in writing, addressed to the College Entrance Examination Board at 431 West 117 Street, New York City.

SERVICE BRANCH IS FORMED

Proceeding a banquet at which the leading business men of Monongahela were present a meeting was held at the American Legion rooms, in the McIlvaine building, Monongahela, Wednesday evening and plans were perfected whereby a community service system has been arranged and will soon be established on a working basis.

The present organization is a temporary one, although it was decided at the meeting the present officers and directors will conduct. John S. C. Herron was named chairman; Harry F. Larimer, secretary; Robert F. Robinson, trustee, and Carl E. Gibson, solicitor.

The subscription list is still open and many additional names will be added to the list of members and stockholders in the near future. As soon as the charter is secured a second meeting will be held and permanent officers elected. It provides a medium where the man of small income of limited means may borrow any sum of money up to $200 at a reasonable rate of interest.

Civil War Artillery Man Meets His Target

In wars soldiers aim to get the enemy. But when a war is over a soldier is glad his shot missed the target as he comes face to face with an enemy he missed.

C. Stuart Patterson, the veteran lawyer and bank president, told friends a few days ago of a personal experience of that kind.

Mr. Patterson was a member of that Philadelphia battery which embraced so many men who afterward became distinguished, including besides himself John G. Johnson and "Hans Breitmann," celebrated humorist, says Girard in the Philadelphia Inquirer.

In the Gettysburg campaign, Mr. Patterson's battery was sent to Carlisle. The guns were posted in the center of the town where now runs the railroad.

Gen. "Baldy" Smith, in civilian dress, was on the job and strolled out to reconnoiter the position of the Confederate advance.

Returning to the town he walked up to the Philadelphia artillerymen and said: "There is the enemy, half a mile in that direction. I am going to hit him."

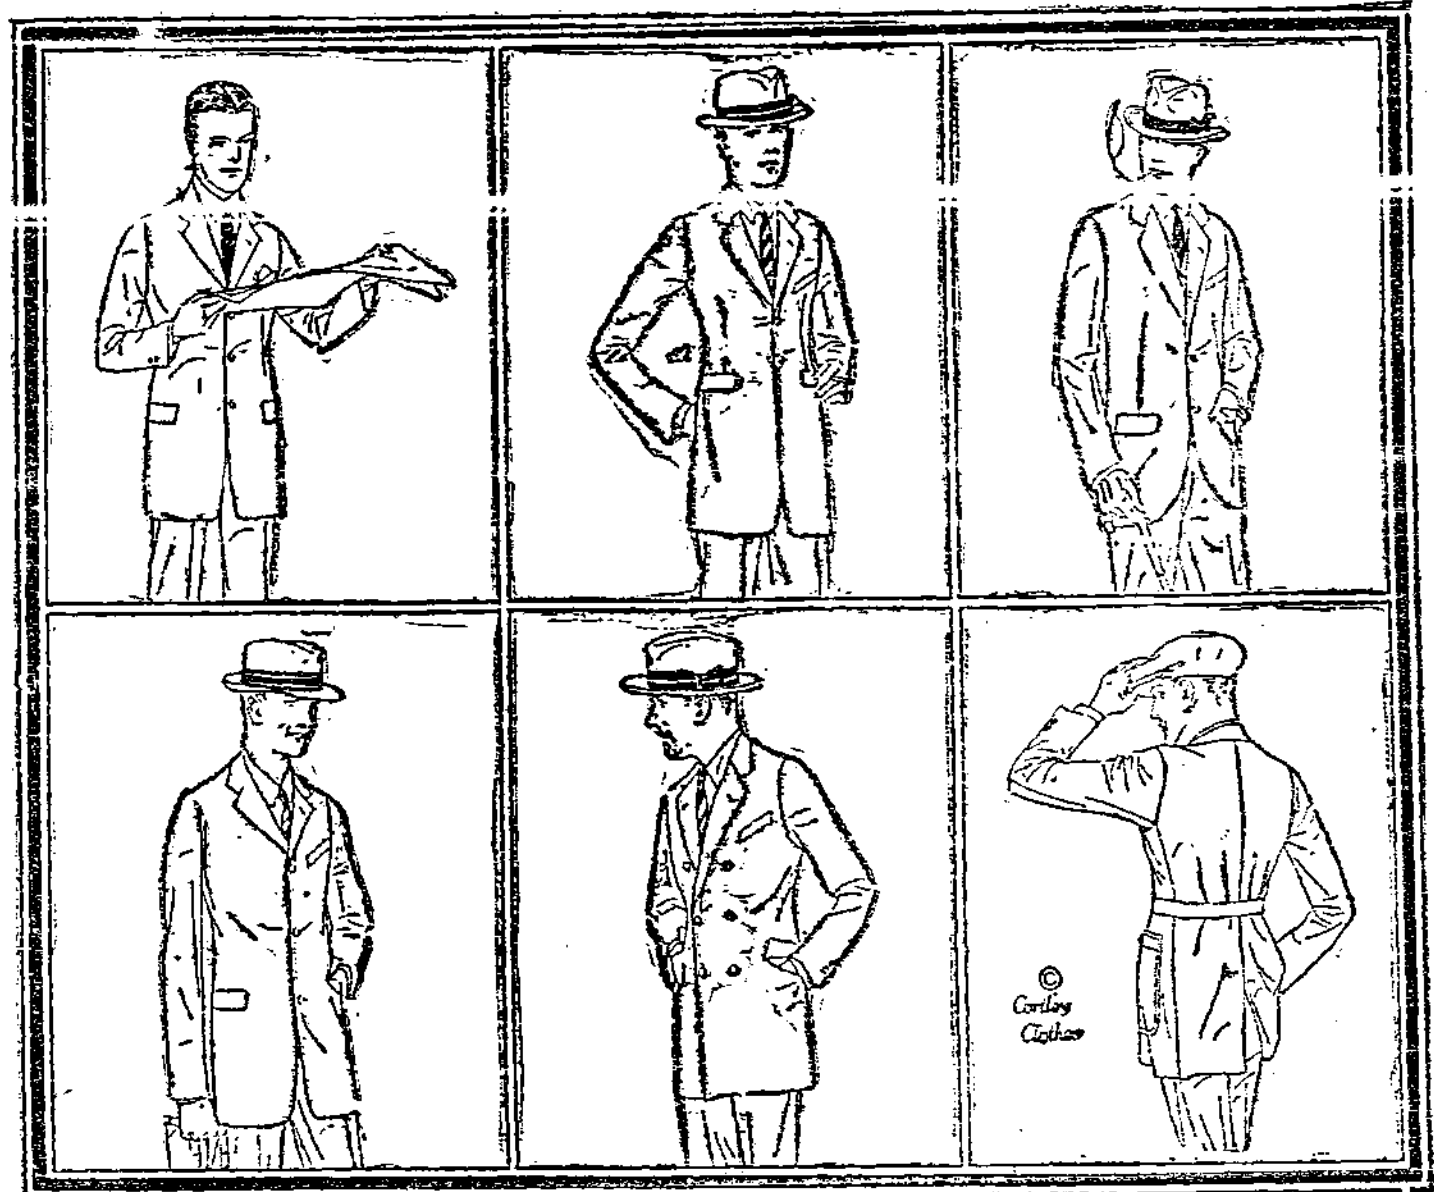

It was in that engagement Mr. Patterson was wounded.

Years afterward he met Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, who said:

"Had you aimed your shots a few feet to the left of where they first fell you would have killed Gen. 'Jeb' Stuart and myself. We had a close call."

"That is one time," replied Mr. Patterson, "I am glad I completely missed the mark."

Spring's Favorite Fashions

SO many clothes have been arriving these last few days that it is easy to see now what Spring's favorites are. Some fashion facts will surprise, they are so decidedly different but they will all thrill you and please because new lines, colors, fabrics have flattering ways.

New-Season Silhouettes

IN fashion's crystal for Spring are several silhouettes, each as smart. The first is the chemise effect with shorter skirt this season. The second favors the circular, gathers its fulness in front and keeps its back quite flat. The tunic type comes to light, and the girlish bouffant—then our gazing is done.

Favor Gowns for Tailleurs

THE more venturesome Parisian first dared the severe Tailleur. She wore it on the street and to smart luncheons, always with a trim cloche and colorful scarf. Fitted lines, squareish shoulders and manish fabrics are charming to American women. Who can tell? May it not become almost a uniform here, as well?

New Frocks

With Much of Fashion Interest

NOW eyes and minds turn to Cloth Dresses. They are important when avenues are sweet with Spring and one needs no wrap but a scarf. Eagerly women are listening for hints of the new. How simple it would be to visit Berryman's for a full picture of Spring's favorite fashions. One might make her selections then. She would be economizing, for everyone knows that values and the latest vogue go together here.

LOVE REPULSED; KILLS A WOMAN, AND THEN SELF

New Brunswick, N. J., April 4—(United Press)—His love repulsed and ordered out of the home he had lived in for many years, Frederick Gould shot Mrs. Florence Christensen and then blew his own brains out. Mrs. Christensen is in the hospital today in a critical condition, with a bullet in her left temple.

Christian Christensen, wealthy contractor and member of the board of education, was in an upper room of his home at the time of the shooting. He ran down stairs and found his wife lying on the floor unconscious with the body of Gould a few feet away.

Gould, 35, who worked for Christensen, is said to have declared his love for Mrs. Christensen the other night. She reported his advances to her husband, who told Gould he had better clear out. Gould had been broody and erratic in his behavior for some time.
